We believe in working together to fight cancer.

The AtlantiCare Cancer Care Institute, a Fox Chase Cancer Center partner, welcomes Neha Chawla, M.D., and Rita Battaglini, RN, BSN, CBCN, to its patient care team.

Dr. Chawla is a board-certified medical oncologist with a special interest in treating breast cancer and lymphoma. She believes in treating all patients with dignity, respect and careful attention, and in individualizing her treatment recommendations based on each patient's personal wishes and goals.

Rita Battaglini, brings more than 30 years of nursing experience — 25 years of those in oncology nursing — to her role as breast health coordinator on the AtlantiCare team. She works with patients across the continuum of care, which includes screening, diagnosis, follow-up care, and wellness/survivorship.

Both Dr. Chawla and Battaglini collaborate closely with other providers at the AtlantiCare Cancer Care Institute to provide advanced multidisciplinary care in our community. Please contact us today to find out more.
